5. Guests
5.1. Chad Snider- E-Sports
6. Principal Report- Max Torgerson
Spartan Pride Rollout will happen as soon as all the videos are made.

Students are making videos that show how expected behavior does and doesn’t look. Discipline events are decreasing and Awards are increasing as reported by Infinite Campus. The focus of the 4th Quarter will be reducing the number of students failing. PLC time has included communication with parents and with each other.

- 7. Superintendent Report- Dr. Rae Villebrun
Dr. Villebrun is continuing to meet with teachers from 2nd Quarter. COVID cases are at the lowest of the year. The Safe Schools Plan update will reflect the numbers. Family members of symptomatic students will not be sent home unless they are also exhibiting symptoms. LETRS (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling) is amazing. Every teacher should attend the training because it is helpful in understanding why students struggle in reading and writing. Summer School Plans are in the works.
- 8. Teacher Report- Chelsie Belkholm
Ms. Belkholm gave the staff an evaluation of her. Most of the feedback was positive. A couple of staff members said they hadn’t seen her much and didn’t understand her role. Ms. Belkholm looked at the feedback as a way to improve what she was doing.
